Term 1 Week 5

25th February 2019

Official Opening of Berryman Oval

L-R Hon Rick Colless, Harrison Williams (School Captain), Kate Hazelton (candidate for Orange) Monique Morgan (School Captain) and Mayor Ken Keith.

Trundle Central School students were invited to participate in the official opening of Berryman Oval after major improvements were completed from the $500K Government Grant.

Principal's Message

Last week was outstanding across all areas of the school. Student behaviour and effort in classes is exceptional and the playground is very cohesive and settled. This is what we expect and demand at this school. It may be a politically incorrect but I passionately believe children need defined and enforced boundaries. The modern theory that boundaries should be negotiated is fine around the edges but there needs to be a core set of expectations for students. Mr Capell often reminds students of two simple expectations, follow teacher instructions and be nice to each other. Two simple expectations that if followed, create a positive learning environment.

Parenting is the most difficult task any person can undertake. There are no set rules and the boundaries are constantly evolving. One of the few things 26 years in public education has taught me is, young people do not need parents or teachers to be their friend. This does not mean you do not form positive relationships but it does mean that young people are aware that adults set the rules and agenda for their own development and safety. I could be wrong but it seems asking someone with adolescent hormones racing or too young to understand the language used, let alone the ramifications of their actions to set the agenda, is simply passing on parental responsibility.

School uniform at the moment is excellent. The wearing of uniform, I believe, is essential for safety because a visitor to the school is easily identified within the playground. A uniform also allows all students to attend school on an equal basis. The standard of dress is not determined by parent income but by the uniform code. However, I cannot understand fashion. Last week I had to attend a meeting in Sydney. A shop in Pitt Street Mall was selling pre-ripped jeans. My mother should be ashamed of herself because she stifled my career in fashion. When I came home with rips in my school pants she gave me a smack. Ahead of my time, another example of creative genius being crushed by authority.

Sydney is great place to visit because simply walking around the streets is an entertainment. It appears to me, a very large number of people are trying to create what we in the country take for granted, personal space. The mobile phone and other devices must be constantly viewed and headphones inserted. This allows them to have a degree of personal space within the ants nest, that is the city, for just a small snapshot of time. They should come to towns such as Trundle. Despite a percentage of people knowing more about your life than you do, we have something they are longing for and paying big money to try to create, space.

Recently a report was released stating that many farm children are under stress because of drought. This school acknowledged this fact over 12 months ago. The drought, despite the down pour in Trundle last week, is far from over. The problem is, it seems to be off the political and social radar. The reason we gave out food packages and other assistance last year, is to allow kids to contribute. This allows them to feel valued and a contributor not as many have expressed a burden on the household.

School shoes are expensive and do not seem to last. I am currently negotiating with a charity to supply the school with a range of sizes, to help out with this expensive item of uniform. It may come to something, or not, but cannot hurt to try as it would be a welcome addition to our uniform pool.

Parents are not to enter the school by the Croft Street entrance. All visitors to the school need to report to the front office. This is a standard practice in NSW Government schools and essential for maintaining the safety of all students. It does not matter if you are only dropping off a school hat or similar, it should be dropped off at the front office. I have allowed the cricket club to use facilities after hours as a service to the community, but all other visitors need to sign into the school. Schools are controlled under the Enclosed Lands Act so parents/visitors who continually ignore the protocol of reporting to the front office. The Principal can impose an enclosed act exclusion. I am sure it will not have to be escalated to this stage, however I am very willing to use this power to keep students safe.

On Wednesday last week along with the SRC and captains, I had the pleasure to attend the opening of the Berryman Oval upgrade. Once again Andrew Rawsthorne and the Trundle Progress Association should be congratulated on improving the facilities in Trundle. Every upgrade of facilities reduces the gap in terms of opportunity between Trundle and larger centres. The Nationals Candidate for Orange Kate Hazelton and Rick Colless Parliamentary Secretary for Western NSW were in attendance, so I naturally invited them to the school. Every opportunity not taken, is one missed. Both these people were full of praise of the facilities and alternative educational pathways we are offering to students. Rick Colless is retiring at this election. I would like to acknowledge the enormous support he has been to this school and wish him well in retirement.

Andrew Rawsthorne is an asset to our community because he is not afraid to put in the hard work to make a difference to this community. It is easy to sit back and want something but it takes determination to actually go out and get it. Mr Moody would be looking down on Berryman oval, I believe with great pride because it is developing into a showpiece community asset. Congratulations to Craig and his team for the appearance of the oval and the town.

Providing more facilities and activities for young people in town, I believe, is an urgent priority. These facilities need to give young people the opportunity to be active. Childhood obesity is a growing problem in Australia and unfortunately can set children up for a lifetime of health and emotional problems. I understand, but do not agree with some members of the community's negativity towards developing a skate park in Trundle. The argument that it will become a focus of anti-social behaviour is not supported by fact. Trundle does not have a culture of vandalism or graffiti so why would building a facility suddenly change this culture in young people? Indeed, the town leaks information so any person who did become involved in this type of activity would quickly be caught. The ironic aspect of this debate is the people who are most vocal in opposing this facility, I believe have not suggested an alternative.

Facilities for young people need to be free of charge. If they are not, it automatically puts them out of reach for a large number of Trundle young people. Consider the expense of playing organised sport. It is not only the registration fee but the cost of travel. The recent increase in the sport subsidy will help but will not go anywhere near covering the costs of children playing sport. Team sport, I believe, is essential for not only physical fitness but teaching young people the responsibilities of being part of a team. Many of these electronic games isolate people socially.

Recently, I approached Bushman's tanks to support the school. This company has been extremely supportive in donating a 10,000 litre tank and a pressure pump for the school. I intend to use this tank and pump to upgrade our showers. These showers are available for community use even though we have had some rain recently, but this drought is far from over. Unfortunately, the media cycle is dramatically shorter than the drought cycle so we may not be able to provide as much assistance to families this year but we will do what we can.

Another week in paradise

How to apply for School Drive Subsidy

[https://apps.transport.nsw.gov.au/ssts/#/
howToApplySchoolDrive](https://apps.transport.nsw.gov.au/ssts/#/howToApplySchoolDrive)

The application form takes around 10-15 minutes to complete. You'll need an email address and have your bank account details handy to complete the form.

Note: Subsidy payments can only be made into the parent/guardian's own bank account, not into an account held by a third party (e.g. a bus operator hired by parents from pooled resources or a school).

You simply fill in the online application form outlining your school driving journey and the student's details.

Note from the office

Outstanding General Permission notes and Medical notes have been sent home last week. Please return to the front office ASAP.

Thank you.

Ajax's

Weekly Woof

Woof Woof, Woof,

The fifth week of term has arrived and the weather is still warm and these dust storms. Try having white hair and being close to the ground. I am only 2 years old so I did not know what was falling out of the sky. Apparently it was rain.

Woof Woof awards:

4 happy woofs to all students who are wearing sun cream and hats. Even Ajax puts clear zinc on his nose to protect from the sun. A young single guy needs to protect his skin. Remember, no hat no play.

5 happy woofs to the shire workers for the condition of Berryman oval. I left a little package in the middle that Southo had to pick up. I thought I was contributing he described it much differently.

5 happy woofs to those students wearing their sunglasses. These glasses will protect your eyes and you look cooler than a rabbit in a fridge.

Four loud growls to those students who pull on my lead when walking me. I am a highly trained performance model you just need to call my name and I will come.

Four loud growls to the students who put their rubbish under the seat near the air conditioners rather than in the bin. Trundle Central School students are better than that.

Ajax would like to apologise for the smell coming from him last week. Southo fed me some cheap dog food. Mrs Southon said, his arms are too small for his pockets. I do not understand that. Humans are complicated.

To the person Ajax heard in Woolworths car park loudly saying that we have nothing in Trundle, I would like to tell her, we have plenty. I was in Sydney before and I can tell you, Trundle is a paradise. I have space to run and safety. Southo said he was disgusted and you do not do something in your own nest. I cannot repeat it as I am a good dog.

Until next week, Ajax

Our secondary students love having Ajax around.

Bark with laughter with Ajax:

What did the Dalmatian say after lunch?

That hit the spot!

Enrichment

Last week we started our first enrichment sessions. This year we will have a 3/4 Enrichment group and a 5/6 Enrichment group. These students will be working together with Mrs Gray. They will be working on a range of literacy based projects over the year.

Mrs Gray

Swimming For Sport

This term we are reducing the size of our groups by sending one group to the pool at 1:00pm. This group will return to school at 2pm, have lunch and return to class for half an hour.

The second group will walk to the pool as per usual and can be picked up at 3pm at the pool. Alternatively, if your child catches a bus home, they will be picked up at the pool.

Please check your child's note carefully. If your child is in the group from 1:00-2:00pm, it is preferable for your child to bring their lunch and suggested that they also bring extra recess. If your child is ordering their lunch, it would be preferable to order something cold rather than hot food as the lunch orders will be dropped off at 1:00pm and the students in the 1:00-2:00pm session will not be eating their lunch until 2:00pm.

Crunch and Sip

Children are encouraged to bring FRESH fruit or vegetables to school for Crunch and Sip. They are also able to have a sipper bottle of water in the classroom.

Sun Safe Policy

This term is a No Hat No Play term. Students MUST wear a wide brimmed hat. This means that if they do not have a hat, they cannot participate in any outdoor activities including lunch time play.

We keep a small selection of spare hats for those students who accidentally forget their hats. These hats are washed regularly but are not to be used every day by the same students. We will endeavour to call parents to let them know their child has forgotten their hat so that it can be found. Please make sure you put your child's name inside their hat.

Basketball

Last Tuesday the students participated in our first basketball sessions. The students thoroughly enjoyed learning new basketball skills and playing new games. The students are looking forward to their next session which will be held next Tuesday 5th March.

K-6 Basketball

Next Tuesday and continuing every second Tuesday (5/3/19, 19/3/19 and 2/4/19) all students from K-6 will take part in basketball workshops. This high intensity sport involves a lot of running, jumping, dribbling, passing and shooting balls. These activities help your child improve their gross motor skills, improve flexibility and develop endurance. The sessions will be run by an accredited basketball coach.

Students, please remember to wear joggers for these sessions.

Secondary

Congratulations to all of the students selected to the SRC last week. We all look forward to your contributions to the School during your time on the SRC. This week Mrs Budd has organised our annual conference which will be held at the Trundle Hotel on Wednesday. Thanks Mrs Budd for your organisation.

Our Year 11 and 12 students have settled into the routine for Access schooling. We discussed last week the notion of study periods where they are neither timetabled for a video conference or co-teacher time. This is still a school period and has to be treated as such. Students need to be at their desk and engaging with their set work which has been allocated by the co-ordinating teacher or working on assessments. It is very rare not to have a support teacher in the Access room to assist students with work. This coupled with the extremely small co-teaching classes and with the correct use of Google Classroom means that our Stage 6 students are extremely well supported. However, only the students can instigate their effort which is needed for success.

Our interest electives on a Thursday and Friday are a real highlight for our students. I love wandering from class to class to see the innovation of our teachers and the enjoyment and engagement of our students. I would particularly like to mention the Community Service and School Service electives. It is such a pleasure to see the students so happy to be involved in serving the communities and contributing so positively. This engagement can also be linked to the enthusiasm of the two teachers involved in these activities-Mrs Ellem and Miss Rowlands. Well done to everyone involved. As always if there are any questions in regards to secondary matters please contact me at school.

Have a great week
Gerry Capell

WEEK 5 NEWS!

We are busy stocking up on new titles and 'wish list' requests from our students.

Our library is already a bustling centre of activity every lunchtime. I have been very impressed with the way our older students have been helping and supporting the newest members of our school community - the kindergarten students. Keep up the great work everyone!

Members of our secondary chess group have been deep in concentration during lunchtimes, while mastering their winning moves. It's very serious business, see images below.

Board games including Twister are still a popular lunchtime activity that always give everyone a laugh. Library borrowing is on the rise which is terrific to see.

Reminder for 2018 Presentation Night BOOK AWARD winners

Any student who still needs to use their award voucher must select a book from the Scholastic School Essentials website <http://www.scholastic.com.au/schools/bookclub> by Friday 1st March (this week). See the Library staff for help if needed.
